ZACH CURTIS

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Born in 1992, raised in southeast Michigan, Zach took to the arts at an early age. Developing skills as a self taught artist that would eventually lead him to a career as a professional artist.

Now, a street artist based outside Pontiac, Michigan. Painting large scale murals and canvas, Zach excels in aerosol and acrylic painting. Creating murals that excite the imagination using vivid color palettes. Known for his unique techniques developed over time that when paired with his talent, create a one of a kind art experience. Zach's artistic process is constantly evolving as he hones his personal style. No matter what, zach approaches each project with complete enthusiasm and dedication to insure moving artwork.
